To Whomever It May Concern,

Over the course of the last year and a half Derrick Peters and I have been co-workers at Beam Global Spirits & Wine. Over that period of time Derrick has become a valuable asset to our organization impressing management and coworkers alike.

Derricks possesses many attributes that make him not only a model employee but an outstanding individual. He is very attentive to detail, catching the smallest item that might slip through the cracks. He has exceptional work ethics putting the company first to make sure the job is always completed correctly. People always come first for Derrick, when there is an issue or he notices a problem he takes the time to find a solution. Derrick is also an excellent problem solver, locating problems and finding logical solutions that work. He also has a high aptitude to learn, making him beat the normal learning curve and become a valuable employee as he can be trusted to get the job done on time.

Over the last 18 months I have seen Derrick wear several hats at our company and he has exceeded their expectations every time. I strongly believe that some people will always strive to beat the expectations of others not matter how high those goals might be, and Derrick Peters is one of those people.

Derrick will do great under whatever circumstances are presented.

Kindest Regards,

Cole Watson
